

Mud Horses Still Running

BAD WEATHER KEEPS PEOPLE FROM RACES

Jockey McLaughlin Ruled Off by Judge Blum for Pulling Semproule.

A sloppy track, stormy weather and a small attendance marked the opening of Tuesday afternoon, the eighth day of the two weeks' meeting. There were no long shots that came under the wire for the first time, the favorites taking all the money. Owing to the heavy track, seven furlongs was the longest race scheduled, and even in this short distance the horses tried quickly galloping through the mud.

In the first race, Jockey McLaughlin pulled Semproule, allowing Minnie to win, and Judge Blum immediately ruled the rider off the turf pending further investigation. Both horses were played heavily. Semproule was being slightly the favorite. The race was for four and a half furlongs, and the horses were sent away from the post in a good start. Semproule led to the stretch, where she swung wide, and Minnie shot the first choice for the honors. Yellow Foot showed this time was 1:01 1/2.

In the sixth race, Willie T. beat out Lady Alicia by a nose. The latter was a strong favorite at the close, but lost the race by a nose. She did her best to come in winner, but Jockey Smith, who tried hard to win, simply did not know how to ride the mare. Duke of Orleans showed in a very tight condition and could not have gone much further. The race was for six furlongs, and the time was 1:35.

STRING OF CHAMPIONS SAIL FOR EUROPE

The cream of American thoroughbreds have been sent to Europe on board the steamship Minnehaha, and the cargo is probably the most valuable ever shipped on a liner.

James R. Keene's string of champions are valued at over $500,000. This does not include the Whitney and Belmont stakes. Collo, Keene's unbeaten champion, is the star of the lot. At one time his value was placed at $50,000. Another favorite in the Keene string is Halo, the winner of many of the classic races.

St. Martin and Fayette, the fleet maiden pair, are among the others on board. Jack Jover has taken twenty-three head for H. P. Belmont and three for August Belmont. With them go Wamba, Westman and Suffragette, the personal property of James Rowe, trainer of the Keene thoroughbreds.

Pool Tourney.

A. Batley defeated A. Cahn by a score of 100 to 84 in the twenty-seventh game of the continuous pool tourney at the Log Cabin Tuesday night. Batley made the high run with 25.

The standing of the players is as follows:

Hdp.	W.	L.	H.R.	P.C.
W. H. Morgan	20	4	1	32
E. Maughan	20	4	1	32
J. Peters	10	4	2	23

CHORAL SOCIETY NOW DOWN TO HARD WORK

At the rehearsal of the Salt Lake Choral society at Christensen's dancing academy, held First Sunday evening, Tuesday evening, the work of preparing for the midwinter music festival of the society was taken up, and a number of the choruses of "Edith" were read through. About 120 members were present, and excellent results obtained on all of the pieces tried. Especially well done were the unaccompanied choral numbers, "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord" and "He Watches Over Israel," which were given with commendable spirit, in spite of its being the first rehearsal of the pieces, and the indications are that the coming festival will be one of the features of the concert season here.

Mr. McClellan said Tuesday evening that it was hoped to give the orchestra as far as possible with local talent, and it is expected that not more than one artist will have to be brought in from the outside. Baritone to sing the part of Elijah. Tenor, bass and soprano soloists can be obtained here, as well as singers for the double quartet
